

Log into Online Banking and go to the Accounts section at the far left of the toolbar and then select the option for Account Statement.

The screenshot shows the Security Bank Online Banking interface. At the top left is the Security Bank logo. A navigation bar contains links: Accounts, Transfers, Bill Payment, Administration, and Customer Service. The 'Accounts' link is highlighted with a red box. A dropdown menu is open under 'Accounts', showing options: My Accounts, Account Detail, Download Account Transactions, Account Summary, and Account Statement. The 'Account Statement' option is highlighted with a red box and a mouse cursor. To the right of the dropdown is a 'Sign Off' button. Below the navigation bar, there's a 'Print-friendly view' link and a 'New messages: 0' indicator. A 'Make a Transfer' button is also visible. A table displays account information:

Account Name	Number	Available Balance	Current Balance	As Of Date
Checking-2222	*2222	0.00	0.00	8/22/2016
Total:		$0.00	$0.00

If you are accessing our E-Statement system for the first time, you will be presented with a disclosure that you will need to read through and accept. There is an option to print the disclosure if you prefer.

The screenshot shows the Security Bank E-Statement Authorization page. At the top left is the Security Bank logo. A navigation bar contains links: Documents, Document Search, Help, and Log Out. The page title is 'Disclaimer'. Below the title, there's a section titled 'ELECTRONIC STATEMENT AUTHORIZATION'. The text reads: 'Thank you for your interest in Security Bank's electronic account statements. This service will allow you to view your current and past account statements on a secure website. Please read the following Consent and Authorization disclosure and indicate your acceptance at the bottom.' Below this is a section titled 'CONSENT TO CONDUCT TRANSACTIONS ELECTRONICALLY AND TO RECEIVE ELECTRONIC DISCLOSURES AND NOTICES'. The text reads: 'By accepting, you consent to conduct transactions electronically and to electronically receive disclosures and notices relative to your account. Your consent applies only to disclosures and notices regarding your account, including periodic account statements. Unless you consent, you have the right to receive all required disclosures in paper or non-electronic form. Even after consent, if you want to receive a paper copy of the disclosure in addition to the electronic disclosure you can obtain one by calling us or writing us. However, a fee of $4.00 may be assessed for copies of statements in accordance with our fee schedule. You can withdraw your consent at any time by calling or writing us, but such a withdrawal of consent may result in a monthly fee of $4.00. By consenting to conduct transactions and receive disclosures and notices electronically you agree to provide us with the information (such as a current email address) needed to communicate with you electronically and update us as to any changes in such information by calling or writing us. You must enroll for Online Banking to receive your electronic statement. We reserve the right to provide any disclosures or notices in writing rather than electronically. Except as otherwise provided by law or in other agreements, you can give us all notices regarding your deposit account or your periodic statements, except for stop payment orders, EFT notice of error, EFT notice of unauthorized transfer, change of address request and other notifications, by email using our then current email address, regardless of anything in this agreement to the contrary; however, we reserve the right to have any notices confirmed in writing upon our request.' Below the text is a 'Print' button. At the bottom, there's a text box for 'Email' and a button labeled 'Accept' with a mouse cursor, and a button labeled 'Decline'.

You will be notified by e-mail when new documents are available for viewing.
Please verify your e-mail address.

Once you are in the E-Statement system you will need to click on the account to pull up your statements. If you have multiple accounts you will see each of them listed on this screen and you will select the individual account you would like to view.

Once you select an account it will automatically load the most recent statement. From there you can review transactions, view images, print the statement, download it as a comma separated value file, or save it as a PDF. If you need to view a past statement, click on the item in the date column at the far right.
